“Portrayal” of Alice Paul, League of Women Voters-Princeton Area

Monday October 15, 2012
6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

League of Women Voters-Princeton Area – A “Portrayal” of Alice Paul – in Celebration of the League’s 80th Anniversary, Monday, October 15th, 6:30-8:30 PM, Channing Hall, Unitarian Universalist Church.

This event will feature Taylor Williams, a member of the American Historical Theatre. Williams, performing as Alice Paul, who will tell the inspiring story of how Paul courageously stood up as a key leader in the National American Woman Suffrage Association and fought for the women’s right to vote – ending with ratification of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution in 1920. Paul also wrote and worked for the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA), which was first introduced in Congress in 1923 and came close to being ratified in 1980. Williams, herself both a trained actress and a practicing constitutional lawyer, has been performing as Alice Paul since the 1980s when she co-created a program about Alice Paul for the Smithsonian Institution. The Unitarian Universalist Church is located at 50 Cherry Hill Road, Princeton, NJ 08540. Refreshments. Free. Plenty of parking.
