

Literature Class travels to Seneca Falls

(Herkimer, NY – May 2013) Students from Associate Professor Lisa Elwood's Women's History and African American Literature class enjoyed a day at the Seneca Falls Women's Rights Museum and the Elizabeth Cady Stanton House on Thursday, April 25. They were given a lecture and guided tour at both locations.

From left are Tanika Delee (Syracuse), Cheonne Brace (Latham), Mike Allcorn (Herkimer), Latifah Powell (Utica), Andrea Shaffer (Little Falls), Letisia Comstock (Herkimer), Tristian Duggan (Warrensburg), Raven Miller (New York), Whitney Romain (Cobleskill), Jessica Sleight (Queensbury).

Share

Like

Tweet

Pin it

Email

Digg This Story

Share

May 5th, 2013 | Category: Beyond our Borders