ITEM TITLE

Rivalry between Harriet May Mills and Mrs. Frank J. Shuler for presidency of New York State Woman Suffrage Association: Includes "Model Woman's Voting Day" editorial; page 4

CREATED/PUBLISHED

Niagara Falls, New York: October 18-19, 1910

NOTES

Discusses New York State Woman Suffrage Association convention proceedings including dispute over admitting Buffalo teachers' suffrage clubs; consideration of changes in methods that affiliation with Woman Suffrage Party would require, including proposed changes to the state association's constitution and organization by Assembly district rather than county; speeches by candidates Harriet May Mills and Mrs. Frank Shuler.

Last column has editorial critical of New York State Woman Suffrage Association convention proceedings, particularly credentials dispute and election being conducted without using parliamentary procedures.
