Prices are net, postage is extra at cost. Orders will be sent at the cheapest rate, consistent with safety, unless I am instructed otherwise. Payment is due immediately on receipt of my invoice. In some cases orders will only be sent against a proforma invoice.

If paying in a currency other than sterling, please add the equivalent of £9.00 to cover bank conversion charges. This is the amount my bank charges. Or you may pay me at www.Paypal.com, using my email address as the payee account.

If the book you order is already sold, I will, if you wish, attempt to find a replacement copy. I would be pleased to receive your ‘wants’ lists.

Orders may be sent by telephone, post, or email.

Suffrage Fiction

226. ARMOUR, Margaret Agnes of Edinburgh Andrew Melrose 1911 [3719] A novel of its time - the suffrage movement although not central to the plot - flows along behind, occasionally breaking the surface in a discussion of women's rights and attitudes to the campaign. Interesting - very scarce - I've only seen it previously in the British Library. Very good in rubbed paper wrapper - with a little card inlaid - showing that it had been presented to Nesta Prichard, of Form Vb, as a prize for mathematics. £95

227. ETHELMER, Ellis Woman Free Women's Emancipation Union 1893 [13144] 'Woman Free' is a 32-page poem - enhanced by c 200 pp of notes revealing a wide range of reading - Richard Jefferies, Tennyson, Geddes and Thomson's Evolution of Sex, Mary Wollstonecraft; Westermarck's History of Human Marriage, Walt Whitman, Ruskin, and J.S. Mill. Its central idea is that men's sexual violence and exploitation of women followed from their destruction of the Matriarchate. Elizabeth Wolstenholme Elmy, the begetter of the Women's Emancipation Union, and her husband, Ben, jointly used the pseudonym 'Ellis Ethelmer'. Interesting and idiosyncratic. Good - and very scarce. I cannot remember that I have ever had a copy in stock before - certainly this is the first time this century. £55

228. JOHNSTON, Mary Hagar Constable 1913 [1344] Includes mention of the US women's suffrage campaign. Very good £12

230. LUCAS, E.V. Mr Ingleside Methuen, 7th ed s, no date 1910 912?) [1397] A novel with suffrage scenes. Very good £15

231. MASSIE, Chris Esther Vanner Sampson Low, Marston & Co no date (1937) [1436] The heroine is a suffragette. Very good in d/w £85

232. PAGE, Gertrude The Winding Paths Hurst & Blackett c 1911 [8th ed] [12888] A novel with a suffrage theme. 'The men call them "new Women" with derision, or mannish, or unsexed; but those who have been among them, and known them as friends, know that they hold in their ranks some of th most generous-hearted, unselfish, big-souled women who exist in England to-day...One such as the best of these was Ethel Hayward..' Good £20

233. ROBERTS, Katherine Pages From the Diary of a Militant Suffragette Garden City Press 1910 [11202] There has been some doubt about whether this is an autobiography or fiction. I tend to think that it is fiction - clearly written by an active suffragette - but am not further forward about who Katherine Roberts was. Extremely interesting - and vivid. Paper covers - a little chipped - but a very good copy - clean and tight - of a very scarce book

235. SAUTER, Lilian Through High Windows Curtis & Davison (11a Church St, Kensington) 1911 [12880] Poems. Includes 'Woman's Plea for Suffrage' and 'Woman's Song of Freedom.' The latter was set to music by Annette Hullah and published by the London Society for Women's Suffrage

£25

236. SHAW, Bernard Press Cuttings: a topical sketch compiled from the editorial and correspondence columns of the Daily Papers Constable & Co no date (1909) [13000] as performed by the Civic and Dramatic Guild at the Royal Court Theatre, London, on the 9th July 1909. A suffragette play. In grey card covers a little chipped at edge

£35

237. TEMPEST, Evelyn [pseud. of Edward Cuming] The Doubts of Diana Hodder & Stoughton [1911/12] [12881] Light-hearted novel - with the heroine taking part in a suffragette raid akin to 'Black Friday' 'The rumour that Government had thoughts of employing policemen from other parts of London was lightly discredited; everybody was sure no such thing would be done, even by the new Home Secretary'] and ending up in a police court. Good in original binding

238. TREVELYAN, Sir G.O. Ladies in Parliament, Horace at Athens, and other pieces George Bell, new edition 1888 [1736] "The Ladies in Parliament" was composed during the the great agitation which followed the rejection of Mr Gladstone's Reform Bill of 1866. Very good

£25

239. WHITE, Percy To-Day Tauchnitz 1913 [12885] A very readable novel - with suffrage taking central stage - alongside criticism of the divorce laws. The heroine, as in 'Ann Veronica', is prepared to sacrifice her social position for the Cause and enter into a legal pact rather than a conventional marriage. Paper covers - good - scarce

Suffrage Ephemera

240. Women and the General Election: Report prepared by Standing Joint Committee of Industrial Women's Organisations to be presented to the National Conference of Labour Women, 1929 The Labour Party 1929 [13067] "The General Election of 1929 ushers in a new epoch. For the first time in our history, women will exercise a franchise based on full equality with men, and nearly fourteen million women will be upon the electoral register...Women hold in their hands the destinies of their sex and of their country. They find themselves in a majority over men of more than two millions. In such a position, they must realise that their responsibility is as great as their power.' 36-pp pamphlet setting our Labour women's hopes for the future and analysis of social and economic conditions for women in the immediate past. Good - ex-library, with shelfmarkings on cover

241. ANTI-SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN [13053] Typed letter, dated 18 July 1910, from George Calderon, Acting Secretary to the Campaign Committee, on note paper headed 'Anti-Suffrage Campaign' and giving the names of committee members and the office address (Palace Chambers, Bridge Street, Westminster, S.W.) The letter thanks an MP for the 'really splendid speech' he gave 'on Saturday'. Very good

£25
242. BODICHON, Mrs Reasons for the Enfranchisement of Women  London National Society for Women's Suffrage, no date late 1860s? [9519] Printed by Head, Hole & Co, Farringdon Street and Ivy Lane, E.C. Scarce and important pamphlet -8pp - good £250

243. CALLING ALL WOMEN: Newsletter of the Suffragette Fellowship  Suffragette Fellowship 1963 [13171] Issue for February 1963 - with photograph of bronze statuette of Christabel Pankhurst by Sir Charles Wheeler on the cover and inside a report of the unveiling at Peaslake of a portrait and plaque recording the work of Emmeline and Frederick Pethick Lawrence and a review of Mary Gawthorpe's memoir, 'Up Hill to Holloway'. Very good £30

244. CALLING ALL WOMEN: Newsletter of the Suffragette Fellowship  Suffragette Fellowship 1971 [13172] Issue for 1971 - with photograph of the statue of Mrs Pankhurst on the cover and inside a photograph and report of the unveiling of the suffrage memorial in front of Caxton Hall, together with a short autobiographical piece by Grace Roe Very good £30

245. CONSERVATIVE AND UNIONIST WOMEN'S FRANCHISE ASSOCIATION A Reply to the Anti-Suffragists  CUWFA [13191] 4-pp leaflet written by Anniesley Horsfall. Pages detached - edges very nicked - but text untouched. Withdrawn from the Women's Library £12

246. CORONATION PROCESSION 17 June 1911  [11274] A stereoscope photograph of 'The Empire Car' - part of the 'Pageant of Empire' part of the procession staged by the suffrage societies to mark the Coronation of George V. Very good £95

247. DAILY GRAPHIC 7 May 1913  [8536] The front page is devoted to an interior view of the destruction of St Catherine's Church, Hatcham - inside there is another photograph of the fire - with fire engine. Also a report of the defeat of the Dickinson Bill proposing a measure of women's enfranchisement. Complete issue - very good £18

248. DAVIES, Emily Parliamentary Franchise for Women 1904  4-pp pamphlet, a reprint of a letter written to the Editor of 'The Times' on 31 March 1904. Emily Davies had, of course, been an instigator of the suffrage movement 38 years previously and noted that 'within the last 20 years a marked change has taken place in public opinion in regard to it. The tone of mingled disapproval and derision, once so common, has to a great extent disappeared, and a disposition is shown to give the question a fair hearing, with an undertone of prophecy that "it will come"'. The pamphlet is not credited to any specific suffrage society, but was, presumably, sold by the NUWSS. Fragile, chipped at edges - unusual - and scarce £55

249. ELMY, Elizabeth Wostenholme Woman's Franchise: the need of the hour  ILP 2nd ed, no date [1907] [12760] A campaigner for women's suffrage since the mid-1860s, she had put aside a lifetime's aversion to party politics and joined the Manchester ILP in 1904. This article was originally published in the 'Westminster Review'. In her concise style she analyses the events of the previous 40 years and demands that Liberal MPs who profess to support women's suffrage honour their pledges. £65

250. FAWCETT, Mrs Henry Home and Politics  an address delivered at Toynbee Hall and elsewhere Women's Printing Society 1894 [12939] A much reproduced speech - first given c 1890. This printing does not bear a date but probably c 1900. It carries the ownership stamp of Margaret Clark, Street, Somerset who in 1909 married Arthur Gillett - so probably predates 1909. 8pp - a little creased and marked - but tight £35

251. HILL, MISS OCTAVIA Women and the Suffrage  1910 [13150] 2-sided leaflet, reproducing a letter from Octavia Hill to the Editor of the 'Times', dated 14 July 1910. In this she repudiates the necessity of votes for women - 'Let the woman seek the quiet paths of helpful real work, be set on finding where she is wanted, on her duties, not on her rights...' The 2-sided leaflet was printed by the National Press Agency Ltd and does not carry the imprimatur of the anti-suffrage society, although I imagine that group was probably behind its publication, the NPA being their usual printer. Good - very scarce £68

252. IN MEMORIAM Rt Hon Lord and Lady (Emmeline) Pethick-Lawrence of Peaslake [13195] 4-pp leaflet describing the various commemorations of the lives of the Pethick-Lawrences. Issued by the Suffragette Fellowship under the names of Lady (Helen) Pethick-Lawrence and Grace Roe. Good very scarce £68

253. INTERNATIONAL WOMAN SUFFRAGE CONGRESS [13134] Budapest June 15-20 1913. This is a small advertising paper label (double-sided) for the Congress - showing two graceful women stretching their arms, to hold hands across the globe. The type-face is very 1913. A pretty and interesting memento of the last pre-war international women's gathering. Fine -amazingly ephemeral - and unusual £85

254. L'UNION FRANCAISE POUR LE SUFFRAGE DES FEMMES La Charte de la Femme 1910 [13192] par Jean Finot suivie d'une Enquete sur le Vote Politique des Femmes en France. 60 pp - fair - paper covers present but detached £8

255. LEIGH SMITH, Barbara A Brief Summary in Plain Language of the Most Important Laws Concerning Women; together with a few observations thereon Holyoake & Co, 2nd edition revised with addition 1856 [9033] Barbara Leigh Smith (later Barbara Bodichon) was 27 years old when she wrote this pamphlet, first published in 1854 as part of her campaign to change the Married Women's Property Acts. This pamphlet is extremely scarce (I have never had a copy for sale before), bound inside recent paper covers. Rather amusingly, the printed price of 'Threepence' has been scored through and '1 1/2 d' added - a comment, presumably, then on the interest being shown in the campaign by a public not yet awakened to the cause. Very good £280

256. LENNOX, Geraldine The Suffragette Spirit The Suffragette Fellowship 1932 [12960] One of the series of 'Suffragette Lectures' - given at Caxton Hall on 17 Nov 1931. Paper covers - good internally -although has been folded. Paper covers carry many shelf marks - withdrawn from the Woman's Library - scarce £40

257. LONDON AND NATIONAL SOCIETY FOR WOMEN'S SERVICE Report, October 1st 1938 to March 31st 1943 [13194] A Report giving details of how Women's Service House fared during the early years of the war (bombed) and where the Library was accommodated (Oxford) - together with details of the Society's perilous financial postition. Good £25

258. LONDON SOCIETY FOR WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE [12935] single-sheet leaflet setting out the LSWS's 'Policy'.Printed by the Women's Printing Society sometime after 1910 (the year in which the Society moved to 58 Victoria Street - the address given). Very good £15

259. MCCABE, Joseph Woman in Political Evolution Watts & Co 1909 [9803] An overview - from ' Woman Before Civilisation' to 'The Moral Base of Enfranchisement.'Paper wrappers - one nick at spine eats into the margin of a few pages -and a tiny bit of text is lost on two pages, but does not interfere with reading. £28

260. MCLAREN, Lady 'Better and Happier': An Answer from the Ladies' Gallery to the Speeches in Opposition to the Women's Suffrage Bill, February 28th, 1908 T. Fisher Unwin 1908 [13102] I have always been rather an admirer of Laura McLaren and her straight-forward prose. 46-pp - paper covers present but detached - text otherwise good and tight - scarce £75 leading WSPU activist - 20-pp pamphlet - card covers reproduces her hunger strike medal. Good - carries library marks - withdrawn from the Women's Library. Scarce £30

262. MEN'S LEAGUE FOR OPPOSING WOMAN SUFFRAGE Gladstone on Woman Suffrage MLOWS c. 1909 [13146] The Men's League for Opposing Woman Suffrage was founded in early 1909 and in 1910 merged with the Women's National Anti-Suffrage League to form the National League for Opposing Woman Suffrage. This pamphlet - reproducing the Grand Old Man's words on the subject is pamphlet no 3 issued by the Men's League, presumably quite soon after its founding in 1909. 4-pp - good, with some foxing, scarce £78

263. MEN'S LEAGUE FOR OPPOSING WOMAN SUFFRAGE Is Woman Suffrage A Logical Outcome of Democracy? MLOWS c 1909 [13147] Pamphlet no 6 published by the short-lived Men's League for Opposing Woman Suffrage. 4-pp - very good - scarce £60

264. MILL, Mrs Stuart (Harriet Taylor Mill) The Enfranchisement of Women Trubner & Co 1868 [12964] A reissue, in pamphlet form, of the important article that Harriet Taylor contributed to the 'Westminster Review' in 1851. Paper covers - back cover has a tear across - front cover has several library shelf marks - withdrawn from the Women's Library. But internally good - and scarce £75

265. MISS MORGAN, OF BRECON The Duties of Citizenship Women's Local Government Society c 1912 [12946] Extracts reprinted from a paper read at the Annual Conference of the National Union of Women Workers, Manchester, October 27th 1896. By the time this leaflet was issued Miss Morgan had been Mayor of Brecon, 1911-12. 4-pp - good - withdrawn from the Women's Library £15

266. NATIONAL LEAGUE FOR OPPOSING WOMAN SUFFRAGE The 'Conciliation' Bill: Revised Version NLOWS no date (1911) [13152] The 2-sided leaflet, no 33 in the series, is headed 'Against Votes for Women' and ends with 'Vote and Work Against Votes For Women In Parliamentary Affairs'. Very good - very scarce £75

267. NATIONAL LEAGUE FOR OPPOSING WOMAN SUFFRAGE Mr J.R. Tolmie's Reply to Mr L. Housman's Pamphlet NLOWS no date (1913) [13145] The pamphlet of Laurence Housman's to which this refers is 'The Physical Force Fallacy'. Pamphlet no 37 issued by the National League for Opposing Woman Suffrage. 4-pp - very good £65

268. NATIONAL LEAGUE FOR OPPOSING WOMAN SUFFRAGE Woman Suffrage and the Factory Acts NLOWS no date [13155] A 4-pp leaflet, no 8 in the NLOWS series, pointing out that the 'Women's Party' (ie pro-suffrage campaigners) were opposed to the 'humane acts' limiting women's work in factory etc because 'most of them harbour such a jealous mistrust of men that they suppose even their evidently disinterested actions to be prompted by insidious and harmful motive.' The leaflet concludes 'To grant women the franchise would therefore be to raise a fresh obstacle in the way of progress and to defer reforms still necessary for the welfare of the working classes.' Very good - very scarce £75

269. NATIONAL SOCIETY FOR WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE CENTRAL COMMITTEE: First Report of the Executive Committee presented at the General Meeting of the Central Committee held on Wednesday 17 July 1872 National Society for Women's Suffrage 1872 [12931] See my 'Women's Suffrage Movement: a reference guide' as to how and why the Central Committee came into being. This - the Committee's first report, contains lists of names of members of the Committee, of subscribers, and of the Local Committees around England and Scotland that affiliated to the Central. In original paper covers - rubbed - very scarce £95

270. NATIONAL UNION OF WOMEN'S SOCIETIES ELECTION CAMPAIGN [9749] in Cumberland (Carlisle, Whitehaven and Cockermouth Divisions), 1909. The NUWSS aimed to induce as many candidates as possible to put women's suffrage in the Election Addresses and to organise a Voters' petition in favour of women's suffrage. This appeal is over the name of Catherine Marshall, as Organizing Secretary. One sheet

271. NATIONAL UNION OF WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE SOCIETIES [3986] with the Men's League (Portsmouth branches) - Programme for an evening meeting that began with a musical recital, followed by the singing of suffrage songs (the words are printed - one of them is by Margaret O'Shea, sister of the secretary of the Portsmouth NUWSS society and then a speech by Lady Balfour followed by more singing and then a closing speech by Alice Abadam. Interestingly the Vote of Thanks is seconded by Alderman Sanders, LCC, who in 1908 was Labour parliamentary candidate for Portsmouth and whose wife, Beatrice, was financial secretary to the WSPU. I think this programme may date from 1908 - because there is a mention at its foot of an Exhibition of Banners ( Fuller's tea Rooms, Palmerston Road) - and such exhibitions were common after the June 1908 Hyde Park rally. 1 sheet -good £180

272. NATIONAL UNION OF WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE SOCIETIES Final Report of the Professional Women's Patriotic Service Fund NUWSS Oct 1915 [12943] 'The Fund began work in Jan 1915, when a Committee was formed for the purpose of assisting professional women, by paying their salaries and offering their services to organisations which are dealing with war needs.' I knew nothing of this short-lived Fund before reading this Report. It lists, on the one hand, donors and, on the other, the positions in which they had placed needy 'professional' women. The Fund was wound up when it became clear that its services were no longer required. The Committee included, among others, Mrs Auerbach, Mrs Fawcett, Catherine Marshall, Ray Strachey, Dr Jane Walker - and its secretary was Kathleen Courtney. 12pp - good - scarce £50

273. NATIONAL UNION OF WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE SOCIETIES Memorial of Head Mistresses of Girls' Public Secondary Schools NUWSS 1909 [12934] 'The headmistresses who signed this Memorial asked Mr Asquith to receive a deputation in order that they might lay their views before him in person. This request was refused.' Text of the memorial forwarded to Asquith in June 1909 - listing all those who had signed it. 16-pp pamphlet - goodish - a bit creased around the edges £35

274. NATIONAL WOMEN'S SOCIAL AND POLITICAL UNION Second Annual Report Woman's Press 1908 [12972] Includes long list of subscribers, the WSPU financial accounts, and details of their activities during 1907. Good internall - paper covers present, but detached. Scarce £95

275. NATIONAL WOMEN'S SOCIAL AND POLITICAL UNION Second Year Intermediate Report NWSPU 1907 [12981] Includes financial accounts for six months ending 31 Aug 1907 - together with a description of the WSPU's activities and a list of subscribers. This was published after Mrs Despard etc had broken away to form the WFL. Fair - paper covers present but detached. Scarce £95

276. NEVINSON, Henry W Women's Vote and Men WFL no date (1910?) [12978] Reprinted from 'The English Review'. 11-pp pamphlet, original paper covers with library shelf marks. Fair - withdrawn from the Women's Library £15

277. NUWSS BADGE [13169] as worn by stewards at meetings or in processions. It is very simple - circular white cardboard printed with the initials 'N. U. W. S. S.' The N and U at the top and the final S at the bottom are in a smaller size type than the 'W. S.'. Very good - with pinholes were it has been pinned to the steward's dress. Scarce £85

278. OSLER, Mrs A.C. Why Women Need the Vote Templar Press (Birmingham) no date (1910) [13126] 55-pp pamphlet by the doyenne of the Birmingham Women's Suffrage Society.
According to COPAC the only copies held by UK libraries are at Birmingham and the Women's Library. Good internally - paper covers damaged and with shelf marks - withdrawn from the Women's Library

280. PANKHURST, EMMELINE ET AL Suffrage Speeches From the Dock: Conspiracy Trial, Old Bailey, May 15th-22nd 1912 The Woman's Press, no date (1912) [12965] The speeches given during their trial for conspiracy by Mrs Pankhurst, Mrs Pethick-Lawrence, Mr Pethick Lawrence and Tim Healy (counsel for the defence). They were reprinted and published by the WSPU's publishing arm, the Woman's Press. Fair - first 4 pages present but detached - spine reinforced with sellotape - paper covers chipped and carry library shelf marks - withdrawn from the Women's Library- extremely scarce

281. PHILLIPS, Mary The Militant Suffrage Campaign privately printed 1957 [11357] 'This pamphlet is designed to tell in a concise form the story of the 'Votes for Women Campaign' and to explain the reasoned policy on which it was based.' Mary Phillips had been a leading WSPU organizer. Soft covers - 15pp - scarce

282. PUNCH CARTOON [12766] 30 Nov 1910, scene is a suffragette demonstration, 'Votes for Women' flags flying. Two young street urchins observe and comment. Caption is 'Man of the World (lighting up), "Well 'ave to give it 'em, I expect, Chorlie"'. Half-page illustration

283. PUNCH CARTOON [12767] 13 July 1910, full-page - the caption is 'Excelsior!' as Suffragist puts her shoulder to the boulder of 'Women's Suffrage' and says, 'It's no good talking to me about Sisyphus; he was only a man'

284. PUNCH CARTOON [12768] 13 March 1912, full-page, suffragettes wield hammers in the background as Roman-type matron, bearing a paper labelled 'Woman's Suffrage' comments 'To think that, after all these years, I should be the first martyr'. the heading is 'In the House of Her Friends'

285. PUNCH CARTOON [12769] 23 January 1918 - A St Joan figure holds the 'Woman's Franchise' banner and, with arms outstretched, cries out 'At Last'. Full page - very good

286. PUNCH CARTOON [12770] 20 July 1910, Asquith is placing The Women's Suffrage Bill on an overhead shelf and saying to the assembled cabinet, 'Well, Gentlemen, now that your individual consciences had had their fling, let's get to work again'. Just so. Very good

287. PUNCH CARTOON [12772] 10 January 1912 -full page - 'United We Differ'. Lloyd George and Lewis Harcourt are back to back on a platform. Lloyd George addressing his side, where a Votes for Women' banner is to be seen, cries 'Votes for Women! Don't you listen to my esteemed colleague!'. While addressing his, male, crowd cries 'No Votes for Women! My esteemed colleague is talking nonsense!'. Asquith's cabinet was split on this issue. Very good

288. PUNCH CARTOON [12773] 5 Oct 1927 -full-page - The Conservative Party (in the guise of one four-plussed chap in a shooting party) looks at a young flapperish women taking a gun from the ghillie and says 'I hope she's got enough 'intuition' not to let off in my direction'. The explanation is given: 'The question of extended suffrage for women (in whose 'intuition' Mr Baldwin reposes so much confidence) will be raised at the approaching Conference of the Conservative Party.'
289. PUNCH CARTOON [12775] 21 October 1908 - full page - two burglars 'on the way to suburban night-work' pass a line of policemen marching in the opposite direction. The wallposter announces a Votes for Women demonstration in Parliament Square - and the burglars agree that 'suffragists' are a good thing, keeping the police occupied they we they do.

290. PUNCH CARTOON [12776] 2 December 1908 - a Bernard Partridge full-length illustration shows Asquith (Andromedus) chained to his rock - beset by the sea monster taunting him with her Votes for Women triton and searching for salvation from Persea - the Women's National Anti-Suffrage League. Very good

£12

291. PUNCH CARTOON [12777] 21 January 1912 - full page - 'The Suffrage Split'. Sir George Askwith (the charismatic industrial conciliator), as 'Fairy Peacemaker', has tamed the dragon of the Cotton Strike - and Asquith, wrestling to keep a seat on the Cabinet horse turns to him 'Now that you've charmed yon dragon I shall need ye to stop the strike inside this fractious gee-gee.'

£10

292. PUNCH CARTOON [12778] 21 October 1908 - c. half-page - two effete anti-suffragist club loafers - the one to the other, 'The idea of their wantin' to be like us!' and the response 'Yes, makin' themselves utterly ridiculous!'.

293. PUNCH CARTOON [12779] 7 December 1910 - small cartoon captioned 'Voter's Vertigo'. Yet another general election is at hand and the poor voter is in a frightful spin as he wrestles with 'don't tax the poor man's dreadnought'; 'home rule for suffragettes' and 'two power standard for the house of lords'

294. ROYDEN, A. Maude Votes and Wages: how women's suffrage will improve the economic position of women NUWSS 2nd 1912 [12996] Maude Royden thanks Isabella Ford for help and advice in compiling this pamphlet; the cover illustration is Emily Ford's 'They have a cheek! I've never been asked'. 20pp pamphlet - good - paper covers with library shelf markings. Withdrawn from the Women's Library. Scarce

£30

295. SCOTCHMEN AT DOWNING STREET Speeches by the Delegates 18 July 1913 [12936] The 'Scotchmen' were the Northern Men's Federation for Women's Suffrage founded by Maud Arnccliffe-Sennett with the purpose of taking a deputation to see Asquith. The intention was that the deputation should, for maximum publicity, be timed to coincide with the arrival of the NUWSS 'Pilgrims' in London. Asquith, however, held true to his word - repeated on several occasions - that he would no receive the deputation. This pamphlet, which they had prepared in advance, contains the speeches they would have given. The 'Scotchmen' were, in the main, members of the Edinburgh and Glasgow city council and the deputation stressed its non-party credentials. 16-pp in card covers - in good condition - withdrawn from the Women's Library

296. Snowden, Philip The Dominant Issue Feb 1913 [12945] A comment on the 'Franchise Bill fiasco' - that is, Asquith's promise that a Manhood Suffrage Bill would be amended to include women - and the Speaker's eventual ruling that such an amendment would destroy the Bill. Pamphlet reproducing an article first published in 'The Christian Commonwealth'. Good - a little foxed and grubby

298. STRACHEY, Ray The Women's Movement in Great Britain: a short summary of its rise, methods and victories National Council of Women of Great Britain no date (c 1928) [13109] A pamphlet abridged from Strachey's 'The Cause'. Chipped and rubbed - withdrawn from the Women's Library £10

299. SUFFRAGETTE FELLOWSHIP Roll of Honour Suffragette Prisoners 1905-1914 Suffragette Fellowship no date [1966] [13107] 16-pp, double column, listing all the suffragette prisoners that the Suffragette Fellowship knew of. A couple of names have been added in ink. Internally fine - cover has shelf markings etc - withdrawn from the Women's Library. Scarce £150

300. THE ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF THE BIRTHDAY OF MRS EMMELINE PANKHURST [12986] will take place on Friday 14th July 1939. Single sheet leaflet setting out the plans for the celebration and a list of the societies that were supporting the occasion. Good £20

301. THE BISHOP OF LONDON The Claim of Justice Church League for Women's Suffrage 1914 [12940] 'A speech delivered in the House of Lords in support of the Earl of Selborne's Women's Enfranchisement Bill, 5th May, 1914'. 14pp in yellow card covers - small format - printed by Francis & Co, The Athenaeum Press, which did so much to further the suffrage cause. Good - scarce - withdrawn from the Women's Library £40

302. THE CATHOLIC CITIZEN [13016] 'Organ of St Joan's Alliance (formerly the Catholic Women's Suffrage Society) 15 May 1963. fair - withdrawn from the Women's Library - together £4

303. THE EARL OF LYTONT THE HOUSE OF LORDS AND WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE P.S. King for the NUWSS 1914 [12944] Speech given on 6 May 1914 in a debate on the private member's bill introduced by Lord Selborne which would have enfranchised municipal women voters. Very good - 36pp in card covers £45

304. THE REV. F.M. GREEN The Clergy and Politics Church League for Women's Suffrage no date, c 1913 [12941] CLWS pamphlets No 4 - printed by Francis & Co. 8-pp - a little creased - withdrawn from the Women's Library £25

305. The Suffrage [13004] I'm suffering from a suff-e-ragette Suffering sore you can see Since my wife's joined the suffragists I've been a suffragist Sings Jock Mills on this Homophon Company (6816) record. I haven't listened to the record - no longer have a suitable player. Surface, to my untutored eye, looks rather marked - the label is in good condition. But it has survived. 'Recorded in London. Pressed in Berlin' Scarce £95

306. THE SUFFRAGETTE, 2 MAY 1913 [13187] An issue printed under trying circumstances. The paper's cover contains only one word - 'Raided' - and inside gives details of the police raid on WSPU headquarters, Lincoln's Inn House, the arrest of its office staff and their subsequent trial. Christabel Pankhurst takes a full page to describe 'What Militancy Means'. Fair condition - has been folded - and on the last page a small square - one news item - has been cut out. 8-pp - scarce £95

307. THE WOMEN'S BULLETIN: ORGAN OF THE WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE WFL [13068] 10 issues from 1957-1961. The Bulletin, usually 4 or 5 mimeographed, stapled pages covering feminist issues, was by the late 1950s/60s produced irregularly. These issues, by no means a complete run for the period, give a flavour of the concerns of the day. Lilian Lenton was the editor and Teresa Billington-Greig was still a contributor. Together £50
308. VOTES FOR WOMEN, 16 August 1912
[13190] Complete copy - although the pages are detached. The main news in this issue is of the sentencing in Dublin of Mary Leigh and Gladys Evans. Fair reading copy - scarce £60

309. VOTES FOR WOMEN, 26 July 1912
[13188] An incomplete copy - pp 693-698 (inc) and 703-708 (inc) - but gives a flavour £30

310. VOTES FOR WOMEN, 27 September 1912
[13176] At this date the paper, owned and edited by Emmeline and Frederick Pethick-Lawrence, was still the mouthpiece of the WSPU. However this issue contains both news of the Pethick-Lawrences' imminent return from Canada and that of the WSPU's move from Clement's Inn to Lincoln's Inn House. The two items - and that describing the large meeting to be held in the Albert Hall - were not unconnected, I think. This is one of the last issues of the paper before the Pethick-Lawrences were ousted from the WSPU. In fair condition - splits on spine - and some annotation, probably contemporary. Scarce £95

311. VOTES FOR WOMEN, 9 June 1911
[13189] Incomplete copy - pp 589-592 (inc) and 601-604 (inc) - but gives a flavour. The WSPU is planning the Coronation Procession. £30

312. WIDDOWSON, Florence The Power of the Vote
ILP c 1928 [12758] A 2-sided leaflet appealing to the newly-enfranchised young woman to vote for Socialism. Good £12

313. WOMEN ON WOMEN'S SUFFRAGE
[12763] full-page of line drawings, by R.M. Paxton, from 'Black & White, 22 October 1903 showing 'The afternoon sitting at the National Convention in Defence of the Civic Rights of Women at the Holborn Town Hall last Friday'. I rather feel that the importance of this event, held on 16-17 October, as a turning point in the suffrage campaign is overlooked by suffrage historians. It was, in the main, the result of Elizabeth Wostenholme Elmy's persistence that it was held, backed by W.T. Stead. She was very keen that there should be a mass suffrage campaign in the run-up to the next election. 200 delegates attended and it marked a revitalisation of the NUWSS. Mrs Pankhurst, whether or not she was invited, did not attend; she had held her first kitchen-table meeting with the group that became the WSPU on 10 October. The timing may be a coincidence. The vignettes in the illustration show 'Mrs Elmy on Women's Highest Mission', The chairman, the Rev Alfred Steinthal, Mrs Green (President of the Women's Co-operative Guild), Miss Eva Gore-Booth (Sec Women's Trade Union Council Manchester) and a scene of a section of the gathered company listening attentively. Very good - unusual £18

314. WOMEN'S LOCAL GOVERNMENT SOCIETY
The Parish Meeting and Parish Council
LGS 1919 [13154] 4-pp leaflet explaining the scope and powers of the parish council. It was issued in January 1919, under the name of (Miss) C.G. K. Scovell who adds 'The country looks to its women voters to arouse interest in local affairs, and to take their share of the steady and unobtrusive work that has to be done by Parish Councils.' Miss Scovell lived in Sussex - and this leaflet was printed in Hove. Good £48

315. WOMEN'S NATIONAL ANTI-SUFFRAGE LEAGUE
On Suffragettes: extracts from 'What's Wrong With The World' by G.K. Chesterton WNASL c 1909 [13151] 'They do not create revolution; what they do create is anarchy'. 2-sided leaflet - noo 30 in the WNASL's series of leaflets - very good - very scarce £78

316. WOMEN'S NATIONAL ANTI-SUFFRAGE LEAGUE
To The Women Of Great Britain
WNASL c 1909 [13149] An appeal to women to pause and think before signing any petitions etc in favour of 'votes for women'. 1-p leaflet -Number 10 in the League's series of leaflets - with the rubber stamp of the 'Manchester Branch: 1 Princess Street, Albert Square' Very good - very scarce £78
317. WOMEN'S NATIONAL ANTI-SUFFRAGE LEAGUE Woman's Suffrage and Women's Wages WNASL c 1909 [13156] 'The leaflet concludes Woman Suffrage therefore has nothing to do with wages, and the interests of woman workers can be promoted, and are constantly being promoted in quite other ways.' One of the ways that the League thought would help solve the problem of the inequality of wages between the sexes would be 'The more even distribution of the female population throughout the territory of the Empire, by means of emigration'. Two-sided leaflet - very good - very scarce £65

318. WOMEN'S NATIONAL ANTI-SUFFRAGE LEAGUE Women in Local Government: A Call For Service WNASL [13153] The author of this 4-pp leaflet is Violet Markham and in it she sets out the argument that while women is naturally fitted to undertake duties in local government, 'Parliament is concerned with matters which lie eyond the practical knowledge and experience of the average woman.' She was to change her mind, standing for Parliament in 1918. Good - very scarce £75

319. ROBERTSON, Margaret Working Men and Women's Suffrage NUWSS Aug 1913 [12937] Margaret Robertson was a university graduate and NUWSS organiser. This pamphlet was written at a time when the NUWSS had set up its Election Fighting Fund to support Labour Party candidates - and was intended for distribution amongst trade unionists. Small format, 24pp in card covers £35

Suffrage Postcards – Real Photographic

320. ANNIE KENNEY [13164] photographed by Lambert Weston & Son, 39 Brompton Square, London. She looks very earnest and ethereal - I think the card dates from c 1909. Fine - unposted £85

321. ARREST OF CAPT. C.M. GONNE [12914] Member of the Men's Political Union for Women's Enfranchisement, Parliament Square, November 18th, 1910.' Capt Gonne was photographed by the 'Daily Mirror' being escorted by two policemen during the 'Black Friday' tumult. Capt Charles Melvill Gonne (1862-1926), Royal Artillery, was the author of 'Hints on Horses' (John Murray, 1904), an active suffragist, who supported his wife, a tax resister, and was a cousin of Maud Gonne, the Irish nationalist heroine. Very good - unusual - unposted £190

322. CHRISTABEL PANKHURST [13165] photographed by Lambert Weston and Son, 27 New Bond St. I think the card dates from c 1907/8. Fine - unposted £75

323. CICELY HAMILTON [12954] photograph by Lena Connell. Fine - unposted £120

324. DR THEKLA HULTIN [13167] Portrait photograph, published by the Women's Freedom League, 1 Robert St, Adelphi, and headed 'Votes for Women'. The portrait is captioned 'Dr Thekla Hultin, Member of the Finnish Diet'. Thekla Hultin was the first elected woman member of Parliament to speak at a suffrage meeting in Britain. The card is unposted but the message on reverse shows that it was sent/given (by hand) by Sarah Benett (who was treasurer of the WFL). From the provenance I know that the recipient was Mrs Louisa Thompson-Price, consultant editor of the WFL paper, 'The Vote'. Mrs Thompson-Price was a friend of Dr Hulkin. Fine - unposted £120

325. DR THEKLA HULTIN [13168] The Finnish MP is photographed at her desk. She sent the card from Helsingfors (Helsinki) on 12 April 1917 to Mrs Louisa Thompson-Price of the Women's Freedom League. From the message on the reverse it would appear that the two women shared a birthday 'I wish you all the best (including the vote) in the following 50 years...' Very good - posted - very unusual £120
326. EDITH CRAIG  [12955] photographed by Lena Connell, published at The Suffrage Shop, 31 Bedford Street (therefore the card dates from c 1910 - before its removal in 1911 south of the Strand). Fine - unposted

327. FREDERICK PETHICK LAWRENCE  [13166] photographed by F. Kehrhahn & Co, Bexley Heath. (For an article unravelling who 'F. Kehrhahn' was see 'The WSPU Photographer, DORA and the Nazis' - on my website). Fine - unposted - unusual

£120

328. GREAT VOTES FOR WOMEN DEMONSTRATION IN HYDE PARK  [13163] The WSPU rally on Sunday 21 June 1908. Crowds as far as the eye can see - with massed banners, including those of Cardiff and Newport, waving in the breeze. Fine - published by Sandle Bros - unposted

£85

329. MISS GRACE ROE  [12958] The caption is 'UNDAUNTED'! She is being marched out of the WSPU headquarters, Lincolns Inn House, by police, arrested in May 1914. She was not released from prison until under the amnesty in August. The postcard photography was by courtesy of the 'Daily Mirror'. An iconic image. Fine - unposted - scarce.

£190

£45

331. 'RUINS OF ST KATHERINE'S CHURCH, BURNT DOWN MAY 6 1913  [11824] Real photographic card. There are several images published on postcards of the ruins of St Catherine's (this is the correct spelling; the card's publisher was a bit slapdash) Church at Hatcham in Surrey, for the burning of which the suffragettes were thought responsible - but I have never seen this one before.

332. SIR WILLIAM LEVER'S BUNGALOW  [8958] at Rivington. The photographic postcard shows it after it had been set on fire by Edith Rigby, Preston's infamous suffragette. The note, in ink, on the reverse reads 'Sir William Lever's Bungalow, Rivington. fired by Suffragettes 1 a.m.July 8th 1913.' I have never seen this image before. Very good - unposted 333. THE WOMEN'S GUILD OF EMPIRE  [12877] 'souvenir packet' of 6 postcards, in their original printed paper envelope, published by the Women's Guild of Empire. The cards are: 1) 'Women's Guild of Empire Committee' - the 6 members of the Committee, who included Flora Drummond and Elsie Bowerman, sit around a table; 2) Mrs R.S Henderson, president; 3) Mrs Flora Drummond, Controller-in-Chief; 4) WGE banner 'Peace Unity Concord' surrounded by members; 5) Banner Making for the Great Demonstration April 17th 1926 - Mrs Drummond under an 'Effeciancy and Enerprise' banner; 6) 'Women Pipers from the Lothians' - with Mrs Drummond in control Scottishness was to the fore. An extremely rare set - I have never seen any of these cards before - and, in general, there are few images of the Guild of Empire and its work. The printed envelope carries details of the 'Objects' of the Guild and of its work. All cards in pristine condition - dating, I assume, to c 1926. As a set

£220

334. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Miss Irene Miller  [12913] escorted by a policeman. The card is headed 'Votes for Women' and was an early one (c1907) published by the Women's Freedom League (whose address is still given as 18 Buckingham Street, Strand). Irene Miller had been arrested for knocking on the door of 10 Downing Street and was photographed, with the policeman, by the 'Daily Mirror'. Small nick on right hand border - not affecting picture or text - otherwise good - unposted

£100

335. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGE Miss Muriel Matters of Australia, Lecturer  [12918] Women's Freedom League 1 Robert Street, Adelphi, London WC. The card, headed 'Votes for Women', shows Muriel Matters seated, reading a book and was published by the WFL Fine - unposted £120

336. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Miss Sarah Benett [12950] photographed by Lena Connell. In this studio photograph Sarah Benett is wearing her WFL Holloway brooch; she was for a time the WFL treasurer. She was also a member of the WSPU and of the Tax Resistance League. This photograph by Lena Connell was also used on a WFL-published postcard - but this one is not attributed to the WFL. The background to the image is little iridescent. £100

337. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Mrs Amy Sanderson [12919] Women's Freedom League, 1 Robert Street, Adelphi, London WC. She had been a member of the WSPU, and, as such had endured one term of imprisonment, before helping to found the WFL in 1907. She is, I think, wearing her WFL Holloway brooch in the photograph. Card, published by WFL, fine - unusual - unposted £150

338. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Mrs DESPARD AND MRS COBDEN SANDERSON WAITING FOR MR ASQUITH [12911] 'Arrested August 19th, 1909' They are shown waiting outside 10 Downing Street as part of the campaign to picket the Prime Minister in a vain attempt to force him to accept a petition. Fine condition - scarce - unposted £180

339. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Mrs Edith How-Martyn , ARCS, BSc [12917] Hon Sec Women's Freedom League 1 Robert Street, Adelphi, London WC. She is wearing her WFL Holloway brooch. Photographed by M.P. Co (London) - which I think is probably the Merchants Portrait Co in Kentish Town that did a fair amount of work for the WFL. The card is headed 'Votes for Women' and was published by the WFL. Fine - unusual - unposted £120

340. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Mrs Marion Holmes [12921] card headed 'Votes for Women' published by the Women's Freedom League, 1 Robert St, Adelphi, London WC. Mrs Holmes was joint editor of the WFL paper 'The Vote'. She is photographed wearing her WFL Holloway badge as well as one of the WFL enamel badges. Fine - unusual - unposted £120

341. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Suffragette At Work in Prison - Mrs Borrmann Wells WFL 1910 /13132/ Bettina Borrmann Wells was an organiser for the WFL in London, having worked for suffrage in the US for a couple of years. She had spent 3 weeks in Holloway in 1908 and is here seen in prison garb, down on her hands and knees as though scrubbing the cell floor. 'Woman's work'. Fine - unposted £120

342. WOMEN'S FREEDOM LEAGUE Tribute to John Stuart Mill May 20th 1908 [13133] Photograph of crowd gathered around John Stuart Mill's statue in Embankment Gardens (quite close to the WFL offices at 1 Robert Street, Adelphi). The WFL chose to pay homage to Mill - the presenter of the first women's suffrage petition - on 20 May, his birthday. In this photograph a large 'Votes for Women' wreath has been laid on the pedestal of his statue. The card was sent by Sarah Benett, the WFL treasurer, from 1 Robert Street, on 12 February 1910 to Mrs Louisa Thomson Price, another WFL activist. Good - unusual £180

 Suffrage Postcards: Commercial Artist **

343. AMID THIS MIGHTY FUSS JUST LET ME MENTION THE RIGHTS OF WOMAN MERIT SOME ATTENTION [12874] These words of Robert Burns are the caption to a scene that has the stereotypical comic postcard suffragette - tyrolean hat with feather, fierce expression and umbrella ['gamp'], ensuring that she has the attention of her female audience. The artist is 'F. MacLeod'. The card was posted in Stratford (London E.) on 4 December 1908 and reads: 'Just a P.C. to let you know I am still alive & kicking like the old girl opposite. We had a few like these at the Town Hall on Tuesday (minus the gamp)." Good - with a very slight crease that does nothing to spoil the image.

Suffrage Postcards: Suffrage Artists

344. ARTISTS' SUFFRAGE LEAGUE Go Hang Yourselves - We Fought at Acre, and you were not there  [13012]. The suffragist figure (dressed in a loose aesthetic robe) leans on a shield whose message is, '190? The Franchise Won'. Behind here is a 'No taxation without representation' BANNER. She is addressing two crinolined ladies, with '1909' running as a repeat around the bottom of their skirts - who are throwing up her hands in horror at her aT her words - and exclaim 'Oh my dear!! So unladylike!!!' Printed and published by the Artists' Suffrage League. Fine - unposted - scarce  £28

345. ARTISTS' SUFFRAGE LEAGUE Miss Jane Bull  [13010]. Addresses Master Johnnie Bull, asking, 'Give me a bit of your Franchise Cake, Johnnie' He replies 'It wouldn't be good for you' She responds 'How can you tell if you won't let me try it? it doesn't hurt those other little girls' - she points to Finnish, New Zealand, Australian and Norwegian children - boys and girls. Postcard published by the Artists' Suffrage League. The artists are 'C.H. & D.M.' Very good - unposted  £95

346. ARTISTS SUFFRAGE LEAGUE Miss Jane Bull  [13011] - with 'Votes for Women' running as a repeat around the bottom of her skirt' - addresses the Home Secretary (Herbert Gladstone) outside his office – behind her is a sign 'Committee Rooms House of Commons'. She is holding a box labelled 'Majority 179' and she says 'The've [sic] given me this - but there's nothing in it.' Gladstone responds 'Dear me! didn't think she would find that out yet.' The illustration is making the point that H.Y. Stanger's Women Suffrage Bill had gained a majority of 179 at its Second Reading in 1908 - the greatest since 1897 - but still nothing had come of it. The artist is Emily J. Harding Andrews. Very good - unposted  £95

347. ARTISTS' SUFFRAGE LEAGUE They Have a Cheek, I've Never Been Asked  [13014]. Beshawled factory girl stands at the factory gate reading a notice 'Factory Acts Regulations for Women'. The card was drawn by Emily Ford - Leeds artist and suffragist - sister of Isabella Ford - and published by the Artists' Suffrage League. It is particularly interesting as expressing the helplessness of working women faced with protective legislation passed by a male parliament that, while ostensibly protecting their interests, could equally deny them work. Very good - unposted  £95

348. WOMEN WRITERS' SUFFRAGE LEAGUE  [12957] postcard for the League designed by W.H. Margetson. 'Woman' is dragged from the feet of blind 'Justice' by the figure of 'Prejudice'. This is the coloured version - in fine condition - unposted  £85

Women and the First World War

349. CABLE, Boyd Doing Their Bit: war work at home Hodder and Stoughton, 2nd imp 1916  [8646]. Includes a chapter on 'The Women'. Good  £18

350. CAHILL, Audrey Fawcett Between the Lines: letters and diaries from Elsie Inglis's Russian Unit Pentland Press 1999  [11675] Soft covers - mint  £15

351. [HALL] Edith Hall Canary Girls & Stockpots WEA Luton Branch 1977  [12884]. Memories of life in the First World War - and of the '20s and '30s. During the War Edith Hall's mother was landlady to munition workers - 'the Canaries' (so called because the chemicals turned their skin yellow) at the Hayes factories.

<td>[11472] Winifred Fanny Whitworth (b.1891) was a VAD nurse at the Royal Naval Auxiliary Hospital, Truro, when she was commended for 'valuable service in connection with the war' in the London Gazette 29 Nov 1918. She was the only daughter (with 6 brothers) of Mr &amp; Mrs R. Whitworth of Truro. Joyce Dennys (1893-1991), illustrator and humourist, was herself a VAD, working in hospitals in Devon. She was commissioned c 1915 to draw the pictures for 'Our Hospitals ABC', pub by John Lane. She must have visited the Royal Naval Auxiliary Hospital at Truro c 1917, when she was working in the VAD administration office. The pastel and gouache portrait of Nurse Whitworth is one of 31, unsigned drawings, that were contained in a sketch book. Research by an art dealer, specialising in art of the First World War, established that the sketch book was the work of Joyce Dennys. Plenty of scope, I feel, for further research on Nurse Whitworth and her fellow Cornish VADs. Very good - mounted</td>

<td>[12892] natural-coloured linen canvas satchel with the initials 'S.W.F.A.C.' [Scottish Women's First Aid Corps] machine-embroidered in red on the front. The satchel hangs from a long red grosgrain ribbon strap which has a buckle for altering its length. The bag still contains an Esmarch's Triangular Bandage - printed with images of how to apply, in a variety of ways, the bandage to wounded men, together with two packs labelled 'Scottish Women's First Aid Corps First Field Dressing', supplied by J. Gordon Nicholson, Pharmaceutical Chemist, 15 Hanover Street, Edinburgh, and two small safety pins on a piece of card, presumably to be used for fixing the bandages. Luckily this SWFAC member was required to put the bandages to the test. The SWFAC had been formed in 1909 by Mary E. Macmillan and came into its own in the First World War, appealing to middle and upper-middle class women who wanted to 'do their bit'. The SWFAC ran classes in First Aid and sick nursing and some of its recruits then went out to nurse in Italy and Serbia. Very good - an unusual survival</td>

Campaigning for the Vote tells, in her own words, the efforts of a working suffragist to convert the men and women of Edwardian England to the cause of women’s suffrage. Kate Parry Frye (1878-1959) kept a detailed diary of life as a paid organizer for the New Constitutional Society for Women’s Suffrage and in this edited edition, covering the years 1911-1915, we accompany her in London and in the provinces – particularly in Norfolk, Kent, Berkshire and Buckinghamshire - as she knocks on doors, arranges meetings, trembles on platforms, speaks from carts in market squares, and deals with the egos and foibles of her fellow suffragists.

For a video of Campaigning for the Vote: the diary of Kate Parry Frye - a talk I gave in the House of Commons during ‘Parliament Week’, see the Youtube Parliament Channel http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u2aeMUGkmDM
