

Article Preview

GOT JOB FOR HER HUSBAND.; Kappa Kappa Club Hears How a Woman Voter Used Her Ballot.

[DISPLAYING ABSTRACT]

They had silver-tongued orators who spoke golden words at the Kappa Kappa Club, which held its fourth meeting of the season at the Waldorf yesterday afternoon. That was the way in which Mrs. Wallerstein, the President, characterized the speakers of the day. Mrs. Gilbert Jones and Miss Harriet May Mills, who took part in a suffrage debate.

SIGN IN TO E-MAIL

PERMISSIONS

View Full Article

Note: This article will open in PDF format.

or

Get Adobe Acrobat Reader

Learn More »

Log in to see what your friends are sharing on nytimes.com. Privacy Policy | What's This?

Log In With Facebook

What's Popular Now

Better Colleges Failing to Lure Talented Poor

Teenagers Found Guilty in Rape in Steubenville, Ohio

FIRST REPUBLIC BANK

“First Republic understands that schools are about safeguarding people as carefully as resources.”

The Bishop's School Rollover for more >

MOST POPULAR

E-MAILED SEARCHED VIEWED

1. This Life: The Stories That Bind Us
2. Better Colleges Failing to Lure Talented Poor
3. Op-Ed Columnist: Marches of Folly
4. In Some States, Gun Rights Trump Orders of Protection
5. Dispute on Transgender Rights Unfolds at a Colorado School
6. Gray Matter: How Beer Gave Us Civilization
7. Domestic Drones Stir Imaginations, and Concerns
8. Opinion: The Gender Gap in Pain
9. History Evergreen
10. Starting a Papacy, Amid Echoes of a 'Dirty War'

Go to Complete List »

William Klein's paint and light show

Also on NYTimes.com

One cat, three lives

Photographing the world, longing for home

nytimes.com

INSIDE NYTIMES.COM

N.Y. / REGION »

Taping Cab Riders' Riffs for the Sake of Art

OPINION »

Home Fires: A War, Before and After

WORLD »

New Push to Free Man Who Spied for Israel

TELEVISION »

Mother, as She Lives and Breathes, in 'Bates Motel'

OPINION »

Op-Ed: Why Iran May Be Ready to Deal

Sanctions have brought Tehran to the negotiating table. Now it's time to move beyond them.

U.S. »

Dispute on Transgender Rights at Colorado School